Managing Complex Workloads - LIVE 60 mins

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. Developing boundaries for your professional workload is essential skill to become an effective teacher whilst still enjoying a social and family life. This session will:

1. Invite you to reflect on how you use your time and to identify areas where you can achieve a better balance.
2. Invite you to examine the practices in your school - e.g. does the available support enable you to manage your workload?
3. Encourage you to be active in managing workload expectations at an industry level by working collectively

When workload management is considered at these three levels, you can develop the practices you need to remain an effective teacher, living a balanced life.
