Challenging Conversations as a Leader LIVE (Three-Hour Event)

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. This session will support new leaders in their approach to managing challenging conversations that occur within the school community. In a formal leadership role, there is pressure to respond to, and resolve conflict situations with parents, students and colleagues with whom we also have a collegial relationship as teachers. It is important for new leaders to develop the social and emotional competencies required to move between their teaching role and their leadership role. The presenter will focus on practical conflict resolution skills to manage these challenging conversations.

If you are in a newly appointed leadership role, join Jane to build your skills, knowledge and confidence.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
