Instructional Leadership LIVE (Three-Hour Event)

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. An essential skill for leaders in education settings at the heart of our work as teachers is the ability to lead instructional practice. This involves understanding various approaches to instructional practice; when and why a particular practice is more likely to be effective. It is important to be able to articulate what instructional practice is and to model it effectively. This session will summarise key approaches of instructional practice, enable you to reflect on your own teaching practice and explore skill development with your team.

If you are in a newly appointed leadership role, join Jess to build your skills, knowledge and confidence.

Completing this course will contribute to three-hours of professional learning and a certificate will be provided at the end of the session.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
