Narrative Leadership LIVE (Three-Hour Event)

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. In accepting the idea of leadership as narrative you are asked to think about how your own narrative connects with the narrative of others in your team. Leadership as a narrative assumes that we are dealing with the whole person who has their own story, with all of its detail and complexity. The people we seek to lead are not just teachers and not just employees; they are a whole person with a narrative, and for whom work is only part of that narrative. In this session the presenter will offer participants a series of reflection and practical activities to use in their leadership role.

If you are in a newly appointed leadership role, join Michael to build your skills, knowledge and confidence.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
