Leading for Well Being - Your Own and Your Team LIVE (Three-Hour Event)

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. To lead and understand others we must first understand and be able to lead ourselves. This session will focus on how your internal triggers, your thinking habits, your typical reactions and your brain all help or hinder your daily experience. This session will equip you to be more mindful of your thinking habits and tendencies and how these impact your daily experience. You will consider your colleagues and your interactions in a whole new way and better understand the responses, reactions and behaviours of others, through knowing yourself more deeply.

If you are in a newly appointed leadership role, join Jo to build your skills, knowledge and confidence.
