Transitioning from Provisional to Full Registration at TRBWA

About the course

Transitioning to Full Registration - What you need to know.

This session is specifically designed for those teachers moving from Provisional to Full Registration.

The session will take you through a step-by-step process and will provide lots of opportunities to discuss and work within small groups to clarify concerns and questions.

Provisional Registration is generally granted to graduate teachers. It allows up to three years for new teachers to strengthen their classroom knowledge and skills. To be granted Full Registration as a teacher in Western Australia, an applicant must demonstrate they have met the Professional Standards at the Proficient Level.

Trade union training leave

Members in schools and TAFE colleges are eligible for five days of paid leave per year to attend trade union training.

To comply with TUT leave requirements applicants must:

- Submit applications to principal four weeks prior to the event.
- Provide DoE/principal with a copy of the course registration.
- Be nominated by the SSTUWA under the "nominated audience" for the course.

The school will not be charged for the salary of the person attending trade union training - this is covered by the DoE. However, if a relief teacher is required, this is funded through the school's one line budget.

For school administration

When processing TUT leave applications:

- Ensure staff attending training have selected TUT Leave in HRMIS.
- Project code 1471 will be generated within the payment system.
