Leadership - Psychological Safety for Challenging conversations LIVE via ZOOM (Three-Hour Event)

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity.

Psychological safety exists when individuals or groups feel free/safe to take risks, raise problems, disagree, ask questions, and admit mistakes. This course will explore what psychological safety is, how it can benefit those working in schools, and how leaders of schools can create cultures of psychological safety. This leadership course will be especially helpful for new and emerging leaders who may have to have challenging conversations with more experienced colleagues in the team they are leading.
