Performance Management: Changes and the Process (TUT)

About the course

What is Performance Management?

What is the Performance Management process? Why do I have to be involved?

What is my role in the process? What is my line manager's role?

Reflecting and revisiting these questions will drive this one-day course as members explore:

- The Act, Agreement and Exchange of Letters
- Changes to Performance Management
- The Performance Management cycle

During this course participants will work with relevant legal documentation and the SSTUWA publication: 'Performance Management: A guide for SSTUWA members'.
