Writing Job Applications & Interview Skills for Promotional Positions

About the course

Any person applying for a leadership position such as Deputy, HOD, Principal, Program Coordinator or Curriculum Leader will benefit from attending this customised event.

This two-part workshop is designed to provide participants with an awareness of current job application techniques including both your written application and preparing for your interview.

You will explore the importance of reflecting individual school contexts and leadership capability when demonstrating your skills and experience as an aspirant school leader in your written application and interview.

You will gain an understanding of the current requirements for demonstrating competitiveness when applying to specific schools via a covering letter and curriculum vitae (CV)/ resume.

If you already have something in draft form, please feel free to bring it along to reflect on during the session.

Please note this course is not applicable to teachers applying for Level 3 Classroom Teacher.
