Supporting Colleagues to Achieve Better Literacy Outcomes in the Primary Classroom

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity for experienced teachers.

Every teacher has responsibility for developing literacy skills. However, experienced teachers have the additional responsibility of supporting early career and graduate teachers to implement literacy approaches that will help students develop and build on solid foundations for their learning. Good literacy outcomes are important for the students and their parents and the overall confidence in the school. Positive student outcomes also build confidence for teachers new to the profession. This course will focus on how experienced teachers can mentor their colleagues to bring about better literacy outcomes in the primary classroom.
