Using Feedback in the Classroom – Feedback for Students

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity for experienced teachers.

Providing feedback to students can be done quite formally and often subconsciously. Giving students effective feedback in a timely manner allows them to receive guidance and improve their work quickly and effectively. This session will explore different ways for teachers to provide good feedback on submitted work, and immediate feedback during classwork, empowering students to inform their own learning.
