Working with English as an Additional Language or Dialect (EALD) Students

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity for all Primary and Secondary Teachers.

Students with English as an Additional Language or Dialect (EALD) often have specific educational needs which can extend on to the whole family. Parents who speak and read English as an additional language or dialect themselves often want to support their children at school but are unsure how to do so. This session looks at different ways that a teacher can set up programs to help engage students' in a way that encourages family involvement with practical ideas and activities.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
