

Safety in Our Schools Conference 2019 (TUT)

SSTUWA
The State School Teachers' Union of W.A. (Inc.)

About the Conference

The SSTUWA has made safety a priority in the face of a rising number of attacks against teachers and school leaders. Everybody deserves to work in a safe environment. The union continues its commitment to this and we invite members to register for the inaugural Safety in Our Schools Conference. This will be an opportunity to participate in discussions that address how to respond and prevent violence in our schools.

Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia

This training relates to the following standards:

Standard 4 – Create and maintain supportive and safe learning environments.
Standard 6 – Engage in professional learning.

Keynote Speaker:

Phil Britten-International speaker, author and Bali-bombing survivor

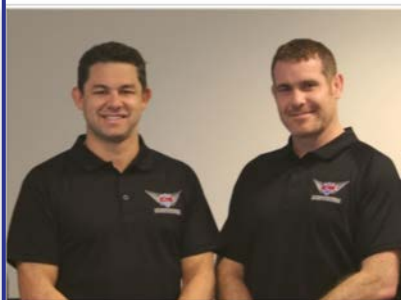

Phil Britten will share his story of personnel resilience against violence drawing on his unique real-life experience of triumph over tragedy. With burns to 60% of his body following a terrorist bomb attack, Phil is able to connect with his audience on a personal level, driving home the importance of taking action NOW. Phil is dedicated to supporting safety in the workplace and keeping all children safe at school. Phil and his team continue to create bespoke training courses across a range of industries and most importantly in education contexts. The team is committed to helping teachers deal with violence at work.

Morning Concurrent Sessions:

Phil Britten and Graeme McDonnell,

Co-founders, IDS

Choose one concurrent session.

Phil and Graeme will each offer a 'taster session' of the popular Skilled up and Safe two-day Course offered through the union.

Choose either a primary or a secondary/TAFE session. Each session will explore some of the skills needed to be aware, confident and capable of identifying, defusing and securing any situation. Learn how to reduce the threat of physical violence and harm through:

- Using effective verbal commands.
- De-escalation strategies.
- Team Tactics.

Closing Address:

Pat Byrne, SSTUWA President

Trade union training leave

Members in schools and TAFE colleges are eligible for five days of paid leave per year to attend trade union training.

To comply with TUT leave requirements applicants must:

- Submit applications to principal four weeks prior to the event.
- Provide DoE/principal with a copy of the course registration.
- Be nominated by the SSTUWA under the "nominated audience" for the course.

The school will not be charged for the salary of the person attending trade union training - this is covered by the DoE. However, if a relief teacher is required, this is funded through the school's one line budget.

For school administration

When processing TUT leave applications:

- Ensure staff attending training have selected TUT Leave in HRMIS.
- Project code 1471 will be generated within the payment system.

Please note

All courses must be paid for in full prior to attending. A 50 per cent cancellation fee will apply where a person cancels within three working days of the course date. The full course fee will be charged where a person cancels on the day of the course or fails to attend. All courses are run subject to minimum booking numbers. Courses will be confirmed at least two weeks prior to course date.
