Creating Inviting Play Spaces for Young Children in Early Childhood

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity for early childhood educators.

The environment can be considered "the third teacher" in early childhood settings.

By creating inviting, homely early childhood spaces we encourage children to explore, co-operate and learn in a relaxed atmosphere.

This session will identify tips for creating inviting spaces, ideas for great play spaces and explore how to move from adult focused "pretty" spaces to spaces that inspire children's creativity.

Delivery method: Live online event

The event will be one hour in duration and consist of live delivery of content at the specified time by a presenter and a host. You will also have an opportunity to interact with other participants and engage with the presenter online. Completing this course will contribute to one hour of professional learning and certificate will be provided at the end of the session.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day and during the training if required.
