Including and Developing Knowledge of Aboriginal Perspectives in Daily Practice

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online opportunity for primary and secondary educators.

Incorporating aboriginal perspectives into the curriculum can be daunting for many teachers. It is particularly hard to know where to start especially for those who don't feel they have a lot of knowledge and confidence to speak with authority. This session will explore and develop knowledge in a way that encourages everyone to be creative and have a go. It will also identify networks that can be accessed to draw on expertise and resources that are readily available.

Date

Tuesday 16 June

Time

3 - 4pm Perth time
Login at least 20 mins prior to start time

Delivery method: Live online event

The event will be one hour in duration and consist of live delivery of content at the specified time by a presenter and a host. You will also have an opportunity to interact with other participants and engage with the presenter online. Completing this course will contribute to one hour of professional learning and a certificate will be provided at the end of the session.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
