Understanding Treaty within the Education Community

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity for secondary educators.

Working towards treaty is a major undertaking for society and has implications for how we operate within the education community in a tolerant, understanding and informed way. This session will explore what the assembly is, what the inaugural plan is and how this can be incorporated into planning documentation to ensure there are explicit links to education within the learning environment.

Completing this course will contribute to one hour of professional learning and a certificate will be provided at the end of the session.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
