Inclusion in Early Childhood - A Cultural Focus

- LIVE 60 mins

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. Culturally inclusive practices are important in Early Childhood settings to reflect cultural, linguistic and religious diversity. Opportunities should be created to explore cultures and beliefs of students, families, teachers and educators to increase understanding and decrease prejudice and discrimination. This session will discuss the importance of inclusive practices and teaching and learning opportunities that will support inclusion.

Completing this course will contribute to one hour of professional learning and a certificate will be provided at the end of the session.

About the hosts

Teacher Learning Network (TLN)

TLN is a Melbourne based, not-for-profit professional development provider supported by the Australian Education Union Victoria Branch and the Independent Education Union Victoria/Tasmania Branch. SSTUWA will be your major source of communication before the online event. Prior to the live event, SSTUWA will email you detailed instructions about how to access the online training space. TLN will then provide immediate telephone support just before the event begins on the day, and during the training if required.
