Successful and Restorative Ways to Reconnect with Disengaged Students - LIVE 60 mins via ZOOM

About the course

The SSTUWA, in partnership with TLN in Melbourne, are pleased to offer this online learning opportunity. It is rare for a Kindergarten child to be disengaged. It is a common experience among adolescents. What happens in those intervening years and what is within the control of a teacher to respond to the disengaged student? In this session the presenter will explore some of the common manifestations of disengaged students and then suggest different approaches, within the control of the teacher, that can be used to re-engage those students in the learning community. The key, as with so many behavioural issues, is preventative strategies and then restorative approaches once things have gone awry. This is a course for teachers who believe that all students not only have a right to learn but they want to learn, and that our challenge as teachers is to find ways to connect them to a learning community.
