Women's Contact Officer Training

Level One: Schools and TAFE (TUT)

About the course

The SSTUWA Women's Contact Officer (WCO) has a key leadership role in the workplace. Learn the roles and responsibilities of this position and build confidence to succeed in this role.

This introductory two-day course will provide WCO's with the knowledge and skills needed to support, advise and advocate for individual members and the branch on gender and equity issues.

Please note:

SSTUWA may fund travel and accommodation expenses for currently elected representatives outside the metropolitan area. Each regional application will be assessed by the Education and Training Centre Coordinator for funding approval.

The SSTUWA is committed to following all up-to-date health and safety regulations in relation to COVID 19 throughout these training events.

Trade union training leave

Members in schools and TAFE colleges are eligible for five days of paid leave per year to attend trade union training.

To comply with TUT leave requirements applicants must:

- Submit applications to principal four weeks prior to the event.
- Provide DoE/principal with a copy of the course registration.
- Be nominated by the SSTUWA under the "nominated audience" for the course.

The school will not be charged for the salary of the person attending trade union training - this is covered by the DoE. However, if a relief teacher is required, this is funded through the school's one line budget.

For school administration

When processing TUT leave applications:

- Ensure staff attending training have selected TUT Leave in HRMIS.
- Project code 1471 will be generated within the payment system.
