Assertiveness for Women in the Workplace: Schools and TAFE (TUT)

About the course

Would you like to communicate more confidently, effectively and assertively with others?

This one-day course aims to develop your confidence in expressing ideas, opinions, wants and needs while building productive workplace relationships.

Participants will reflect and explore communication styles, behaviour types and behaviour patterns. You will learn to recognise assertive and non-assertive behaviours. You will also explore how to identify barriers to assertive behaviour and how to respond assertively in the workplace. These skills will support processes for managing to resolve conflict in the workplace.

Trade union training leave

Members in schools and TAFE colleges are eligible for five days of paid leave per year to attend trade union training.

To comply with TUT leave requirements applicants must:

- Submit applications to principal four weeks prior to the event.
- Provide DoE/principal with a copy of the course registration.
- Be nominated by the SSTUWA under the "nominated audience" for the course.

The school will not be charged for the salary of the person attending trade union training - this is covered by the DoE. However, if a relief teacher is required, this is funded through the school's one line budget.

For school administration

When processing TUT leave applications:

- Ensure staff attending training have selected TUT Leave in HRMIS.
- Project code 1471 will be generated within the payment system.
