School psychologists' forum, January 2016

The SSTUWA warmly invites school psychologists from across WA to register to attend this event.

We are fortunate to have renowned speakers including Peta Slocombe and Wilson McCaskill as part of this forum.

The afternoon is dedicated to improving the wellbeing of students and staff across schools and will provide each delegate with a valuable opportunity to increase their knowledge of current industrial, political and educational agendas.

Click here to find out more

The forum is open to members and non-members, so please feel free to pass these details on to others.

Registrations Close: Friday 11 December 2015

Authorised by Sally Dennis, General Secretary, The State School Teachers' Union of W.A.
ABN 54 478 094 635 © 2026