Special Election issue of Australian Educator available now

Australia is going to the polls on 2 July and the various parties' education policies and promises are under scrutiny like never before.

The latest edition of Australian Educator is now on its way to your home address and it is packed with insights and information about the various parties' plans for education. Be sure to get your copy to learn all about policies that will shape your vote.

Top stories for this election edition are:

You decide
The Labor Party, the Coalition and the Greens tell us about their education policies.

What the Parties are promising
A graphic outlining of the three main parties' stance on of key issues such as Medicare, Climate Change, and Housing.

Election Forum
Actions speak louder than words when it comes to the Coalition's record. The ACTU, St Vincent de Paul Society, and Australian Nurses and Midwives Federation share their thoughts on election issues.

The stark Gonski choice
Correna Haythorpe outlines the AEU's views

Read the latest issue online @ Australian Educator – Winter 2016

Authorised by Sally Dennis, General Secretary, The State School Teachers' Union of W.A.
ABN 54 478 094 635 © 2026