

Retired Teachers

Retired Teachers' Association of the SSTUWA

Upon retirement, become a retired teacher member of the SSTUWA and retain your benefits of membership. The cost is $25 per year. (Note: retired teacher members cannot vote in union elections.)

Retired Teachers' Association (RTA) activities

In retirement you can enjoy the activities of the RTA, which may include:

- Actively engaging in SSTUWA and union campaigns and initiatives.
- Staying up-to-date with the profession through Western Teacher magazine and union communications.
- Quarterly meetings with guest speakers.
- Day outings and excursions to places of interest.
- RTA choir.
- RTA literature group.
- Annual luncheon each November.
- Annual morning tea with the SSTUWA.
- Annual concert (each June).
- Annual general meeting (March).

We are interested in your ideas and invite your participation at all levels.

Look out for RTA updates on the noticeboard page of each edition of Western Teacher. Any correspondence should be directed to PO Box 22 Mosman Park WA 6912.

The Retired Teachers' Association of the SSTUWA is the successive body of the Retired Teachers' Association (Inc.)

Attached, please find the minutes of the last meeting of the proposed Retired Teachers' Association of the SSTUWA.

The next meeting of retired members will be held at the SSTUWA on Monday 8 May at 11am.

An update on development of the rules will be available for discussion and debate. We will also discuss the type of activities that would be of interest to members and meeting dates and times.

There will also be time for members to raise any points that they would like discussion on.
