National Worksafe Month

It's here, National Safe Work Month 2019. We encourage you to promote the importance of ensuring health at safety at your workplace.

This year's theme is - Be a Safety Champion.

Anyone, workers, employees, managers, supervisors, teams and organisations can be leaders in work health and safety.

Safe Work Australia has many resources to help you be a safety champion and promote best practice health and safety in your workplace.

Download our campaign kit to help you and your workplace take part.

See what our CEO, Michelle Baxter has to say in the latest media release.

Use the hashtag #safetychampion to give a shout out to the safety champions at your workplace this October.

To receive our updates subscribe to our mailing list and check the box for 'National Safe Work Month' or follow us on social media.

Authorised by Sally Dennis, General Secretary, The State School Teachers' Union of W.A.
ABN 54 478 094 635 © 2026