
Delegates join forces for town hall meeting

November State Council delegates used their conference lunch break on Friday as an opportunity to join hundreds of other public sector union members at a town hall meeting in the fight for a fair wages policy. See the photos below.