Celebrating 125 years

SSTUWA
State School Teachers' Union of WA

125 Years: Legendary SSTUWA leader (and later life member) Nennie Harken peruses the WA Teacher's Journal (forerunner to Western Teacher) with other members.

125 Years: A middle school class at Merredin State School in 1953.

125 Years: The SSTUWA union building at 13 Murray Street as it was constructed during the 1960s.

125 Years: A group shot of SSTUWA leaders, executive and members, including former senior vice president Nennie Harken (front left) and general secretary Trevor Lloyd (second row, far right).

125 Years: A Year 4 classroom from an unidentified metropolitan school in 1962.

Authorised by Sally Dennis, General Secretary, The State School Teachers' Union of W.A.
ABN 54 478 094 635 © 2026